He struck a stage attitude and exclaimed in guttural tones-"O Anna, why dids't thou leave me thusly? O tiger's heart, wrapt in a woman's hide, a-h-h-h!' REMOVAL OF REMAINS .- On Tuesday evening last, at about eight o'clock, three coffins, containing the remains of the late Hon. C. Kapaakea, his wife, the high chiefess A. Keohokalole, (the parents of the present Royal Family) and their infant daughter, were placed on hearses and transferred by torchlight

Kawaiahao to the Royal Mausoleum in Nuuanu valley, under direction of His Ex. Gov. Dominis. COMPLIMENTARY .- The Gazette, in an editorial paragraph says that the Guards were entertained at Capt. Hassinger's residence at Kewalo, on Monday, and did good shooting at a target. The inference would naturally be that friend Hassinger was the I Captain of the Guards-but he isn'th And again, it is hard on the Guards when the editor in the same breath says that "there was the usual number of accidents, most of them attributable to drunkenness.' Really, we had given the company the credit of being composed of sober men. But we suppose it is | cart and had the body conveyed to the grave.

all owing to the Gazette's way of " putting things." IT DID'NY HURT -On Monday, as two ladies were driving out of town past the Kawaiahao church, a little boy, some six or seven years of age, one of a group playing by the roadside, ran suddenly before the wheels of the carriage, which passed over him before it could be stopped. The ladies screamed as they felt the wheel lift, and as soon as possible turned back, expecting to see the lifeless form of the boy; as lively as before. They wished to take him to a doctor to be examined, but he insisted that he was not the burial, but the letter your correspondent sent to you for publication. It is not yet too late for him to disabuse his mind, if he doctor to be examined, but he insisted that he was'n

Visiting Brethren are respectfully invited to attend. A FAIR PRICE - A small lot, with a wooden house H. B. M's. Commissioner and Consul General, who upon it, situated on a lane running out of Maupaken street, was sold at auction by Mr. Bartow on Thurs-Hare, R. N., Commander H. B. M's. Ship Myrmidon; day, for $584, the purchaser being a native named Amara. Considering the times and the locality, the price was a fair one. DEATH OF A PROMINENT HAWAILAN. - The Hon. S. P. Kalama, a member of the Privy Council, died on the 2d inst. at his residence at Liliha street, W. L. Green, Minister of Foreign Affairs; His Ex. having been ill for some months. Mr. Kalama was John O. Dominis, Governor of Oshu; Hon. Col. formerly a Government Surveyor, had served several Chas. H. Judd; Fred. W. Beckley, Esq., H. M's. | terms in the Legislature as Representative, and was a member of the Privy Council of State under Kamehameha V. Lunalilo, and His present Majesty. He was about 60 years of age. Mr. Kalama was the person who saved the life of the late Dr. Q. P. Judd

TER CREENATION of the 28th, which took place on Monday, was a very quiet one. The sail-best race again failed to come off, for the want of a suitable breeze. The volunteer company, "The Prince's IT HAS pleased His Majesty the King to appoint Own," (of which His Majesty is Captain) spent sev-the following gentlemen, Knights Grand Cross of eral hours in drilling on the Esplanade, and afterwards marched through the principal streets, making a very creditable appearance. The "Hawaiian Guard," Major Gulick, practiced at a target on the plains, Sergeant Williams winning the medal. There was to have been a match game of base-ball, but the expected opponents of the "Athletes" failed to put in an appearance, and that club still remain " masters of the situation." THE WEATHER. - When news Items are scarce, it is in order to speak of the weather. It has, to say the least, been queer of late. We have had the wind from the south-west and south for a week, threatening a Kona, but succeeding in only a very poor imitation of one. While a moderate breeze prevailed on this side the island, Koolau was visited with strong gusts, that swayed the trees and threatened to aproof them. Calms have prevailed at the windward islands, and one schooner was a week in coming from Molokai to Honolulu. Meantime the absence of the regular trades makes us in Honolulu aware of un pleasant and noxious odors, and suggests the subject of sewerage and city purification generally-a subject which will one day compel attention.

Mr. EDITOR :- A few days ago a singular case was brought before the Police Court, by a stranger, lately from California, against a quiet and wheel of a baby's carriage in contact with the com plainant's knee. The trouble arose out of an un lawful obstruction of the sidewalk, which the citi before; but it is possible that the number of subjects for editorials was never so limited as at this period. DEAR SIR :- In your issue of the 18th of November Man," a rather sensational heading, and, tike most gutter. He was a native, but when aroused he spoke English as well as the whisky would allow.

an early hour in the morning; and it was reported to me. Knowing that he had no relations, and not knowing of any friends he had who would interest themselves in the matter, and further knowing that he carried on his business under the assistance of Dr. Wight, who at the time was absent in Honolulu, I went out to see what was to be done, and to see that his property was not made away with. I ordered and with a guard of troops from the cemetery at the coffin to be made and properly prepared; I also sent for the Catholic priest, as I knew the deceased was a Catholic, and asked him to take charge of the funeral obsequies; but he objected to do so on the ground that Sebastian did not attend his church. I knew it was no use to apply to Rev. Mr. Bond, as he was confined to the house at the time with sickness. As none of the parties owning land in the neighborhood of Sebastian's residence would allow me to have a grave dug for him on their lands, I was necessitated to have it dug on Dr. Wight's land. I selected a quiet retired spot in the ravine close to his bouse under a clump of pride of India trees, and in the afternoon, between 4 and 5 o'clock, went with a there was neither pomp nor ceremony; nor did I know that any of the foreigners wished to attend the funeral, as none had expressed such a wish to me, nor as I ascertained from the party I had left in charge had any foreigner been to the prem ing my absence, though his death was known throughout the district at an early hour of the day Had I known be had a friend so interested as your correspondent, I certainly would have communicated with him and availed myself of his services.

If I can judge by what I have heard of the opinions of the foreigners here, the disgraceful part of the so wishes, of the idea that the burial was as he calls it only fitted for a dog, by coming and inspecting the grave and seeing that it is cared for and planted with flowers.

To the Trustees of the Queen's Hospital 2.
